

Workshop “Anonymity & Data Retention: The recent European directive on data retention and its impact on PRIME”

Where: ICRI, KU Leuven (Room: Babelbox), Sint-Michielsstraat 6, 3000, Leuven

When: Wednesday, 8th of November, 2006

Agenda

Session 1: The recent data retention directive

9.00 – 9.10

Introduction (i.e. short history of development, political framework, relation to PRIME) (Prof. Jos Dumortier – Director of ICRI)

9.10 – 09.30

An introduction to the data retention directive – (Eleni Kosta – ICRI)

09.30 – 10.00

Legal and political controversies on data retention - An overview (Jan Schallaböck – ICPP)

10.00 – 10.30

Data retention - The Belgian implementation of the EU Directive 2006/24/EC (Luc Beirens – Federal Police of Belgium)

10.30 – 11.00

Technological Dimensions of Data Retention: a Security Perspective (George Danezis - COSIC)

11.00 – 11.30

Coffee break

11.30 – 12.30

Questions and answers

12.30 – 14.00

Lunch

Session 2: Impact of the data retention directive on PRIME

14.00 - 15.30

Impact presentations by PRIME partners regarding their respective PRIME work:

- Enabling criminal proceedings through Identity Management? Possible implications of 2006/24/EC for the PRIME-Project (Jan Schallaböck - ICPP)
- Any participant interested

15.30 - 15.45

Coffee break

15.45 - 17.15

Moderated discussion: proposal for actions building working groups/ assigning responsibilities (Moderation: Günter Schumacher - JRC)

17.15 - 17.30

Wrap up: Overview of results (Jan Camenisch)